Athiikkavu Vela, Kerala

04th January, 2022

- ❖ A low key festival of a privately owned Temple located by a River in Thrissur, Central Kerala.
- ❖ Procession of elephants and percussion ensemble.

Athiikkavu is a small privately owned temple in the suburbs of Thrissur. The main attraction of the temple is its riverside setting and laid back ambience. The temple celebrates its annual festival every year in the first week of January. Going by major temple festivals in and around Thrissur, Athiikkavu Vela is not very big. Usually the afternoon procession with three elephants and percussion accompaniment attracts the local population. The beautiful setting of the temple and ease of accessing the festival makes it an attractive proposition for visitors.

Karamel Muchilottu Perumkaliyattam Theyyam, Kerala

Date to be announced

- ❖ The main attraction is a plethora of cultural dance performances in an exceptional way.
- ❖ Usually held between the months of November to April according to the festival calendar Kerala.

Theyyam is a fascinating religious ritual of Kerala; intense and dark, which incorporates dance, mime and music, to celebrate an ancient tribal culture, which attaches a great importance to the worship of heroes and ancestral spirits. Kannur and Kasargod are the best places in North Kerala to go see a Theyyam. Of the two Kannur is the stronghold of Theyyam and is best recommended. A Theyyam can happen in a temple, in a forest shrine, in a private shrine or a private home. In a Theyyam session, an oracle offers his body to the spirits –sometimes that of an ancestor, maybe a great forest hero of the yore or a serpent goddess – as a medium to communicate with the villagers, understand their problems, offer solutions and bless them. People wanting counsel approach the Oracle in a trance-eyes bulging and rolling back- with their questions. Answers are given in whispers and sometimes in extensive outbursts. It is believed by the locals that the Oracle of a Theyyam possessed by spirits can cure an illness, ensure a good harvest or drive away evil spirits.

Bikaner Camel Festival, Rajasthan

08th to 09th January, 2022

- ❖ Camel races, safaris for tourists and camel fur cutting.
- ❖ Folk and fire dances and spectacular fireworks will light up the night sky

The Camel Festival is a lively and colourful annual festival in Bikaner. Enjoy the spectacular displays of camels dressed in vibrant bridles, traditional necklace and heavy anklets showing off wonderful footwork to the lovely tunes on desert sands. There are competitions like best decorated camels, camel milking and best fur cutting designs on camels. Though the festival is exclusively organized to glorify the kings of the Desert, traditional Rajasthani folk dance performances and music add to the charm of the festival. There is also plenty of scope for eating, souvenir-shopping and photography at this festival.

Pongal, Tamil Nadu

13th to 16th January, 2022

- ❖ A harvest festival in Tamil Nadu, South India.
- ❖ Pongal refers to the traditional practice of preparing sweet rice infused with milk and jaggery in a new clay pot.

Pongal is a 4 day harvest festival which sees the entire state in a tizzy of celebrations as giving thanks to the Sun God for overflowing abundance of harvest for the year. The 4 days are named differently with a unique ritual followed on each of the days. Day one, Bhogi, sees the disposal of useless household things into a bonfire marking riddance of worthless things; Day two, Thai Pongal, is when the first rice harvest of the season is cooked and offered to the Sun God after decorating the house; Day three, Mattu Pongal, cattle are adorned with garlands, worshipped and taken around the village in a procession and Day four, Kaanum Pongal, the families visit each other to share the festivities of Pongal. The spirit of celebration for these 4 days is infectious with positivity dripping in every corner.

International Kite Festival, Gujarat

14th January, 2022

- ❖ A spectacular community festival where master kite makers and kite flyers from across the globe wow the crowds with their quaint kites and kite flying skills.

A day when the sky looks like a kaleidoscope of colours across the cities from dawn till after dusk, Uttaryan is a celebration that marks the end of winter. A uniquely Gujarati phenomenon, this festival is all about coming together as a community. The festival is dominated by friendly neighbourhood competitions and mouth-watering Gujarati delicacies. The Kite festival held at Ahmedabad is a ritual since 1989 where master kite makers and kite flyers from across the globe participate to wow the crowds with their quaint kites. It is here that you will get to see and appreciate this age-old sport and the spirit it embodies.

Gangasagar Mela, West Bengal

14th January, 2022

- ❖ This festival is celebrated with great zeal in Sunderbans, West Bengal.
- ❖ Thousands of Hindus take a holy dip at auspicious time on Makar Sankranti day morning and offer prayers to Lord Surya (Sun god).

Gangasagar Mela is a significant gathering of the Hindu pilgrims during the auspicious time of 'Makar Sankranti'. It takes place at the Sagar Island or 'Sagardweep' in West Bengal before the Ganga merges into the Bay of Bengal. Hindu devotees gather at this place to take a holy dip in River Ganga. People believe that a dip in the holy river during this auspicious time frees them of their previous and present life's sin ridding them of the cycle of death and rebirth. During the Gangasagar Snan, a large fair is organized which starts a few days before and ends one day after Sankranti. Similar spectacular sights can be witnessed in varying intensities at the banks of River Ganges and its tributaries across the Northern region.

Varakkara Pooram, Kerala

14th January, 2022

- ❖ Festival of various temples in and around the Varakkara village in the suburbs of Thrissur, Central Kerala
- ❖ Grand procession with twenty-three caparisoned elephants

The transition of Sun from Sagittarius to Capricorn is a major event in the Hindu calendar. Around Thrissur several temples celebrate their annual festival on this day. One of the most important festivals associated with this event is the Varakkara Pooram. Several temples in and around the Varakkara village in the suburbs of Thrissur take part in this festival. Each temple represents a locality and organizes its own festivity and procession in which the local population joyously joins. The final grand procession with twenty-three caparisoned elephants and grand percussion ensemble is a spectacular sight. Since the final procession happens in a vast open space, it is very amenable for viewing by visitors.

India Craft Week

14th to 17th January, 2022

- ❖ India Craft Week aims at reviving the various art and craft forms in India.
- ❖ This event brings many renowned artists out into the spotlight.

2018 was marked as the new beginning of India's first official craft week. The project was born out of an intense desire among its founders, Iti Tyagi and Somesh Tyagi, to narrate the untold stories of artisans of India. It is a celebration of Craftsmanship and a salute to craftsmen and artisans who devote their entire lives in developing and preserving their heritage. This week-long event showcases the work of various innovators and traditional artists, weavers, crafts people from all over India. India Craft Week also has engaging symposiums and the craft awards. It is now a part of the country's cultural calendar.

Magh Bihu Festival, Assam

14th to 15th January, 2022

- ❖ It is the second largest Bihu festival of Assam.
- ❖ The occasion coincides with the celebrations of Pongal and Makar Sankranti in many states.

Magh Bihu is one of the most auspicious community festivals of Assam which marks the end of the harvest season. The night before the day of Bihu is called Uruka when the entire community comes together for a time of merry-making. They cook together and have a feast which sees people dancing and singing. The next morning, the community gathers to light the Meji, a large bon fire and pray for a better harvest in the year ahead. This festival though most important for farmers across the region, is celebrated by everyone across cities and towns alike.

Thaipooyam, Kerala

18th January, 2022

- ❖ Festival at the temples dedicated to Murugan, the God of War in Hinduism
- ❖ Elephant procession and traditional percussion ensembles

Thaipooyam is a festival celebrated in all Murugan temples across South India. Kavadi attam (dancing with decorated wooden altars) to the accompaniment of percussion and songs is the most important and colourful ritual associated with Thaipooyam. Koorkkenchery and Thayamkulangara are two important Murugan temples near Thrissur and both celebrate the festival with a lot of pomp. The former temple is famous for its extensive Kavadi attam while the latter organizes an elephant procession with traditional percussion in addition to Kavadi .

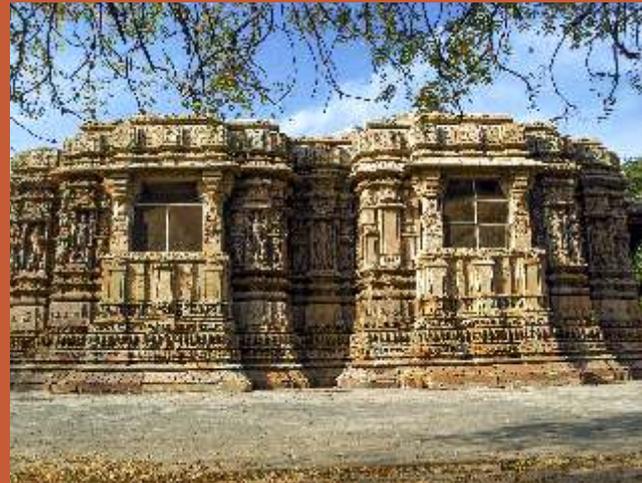

Modhera Dance Festival, Gujarat

Third week end of January for 3 days

- ❖ The beautiful Sun Temple acts as the backdrop during the festival of Indian classical dances held every year in January for three days.
- ❖ The Sun Temple at Modhera is positioned in such a manner that the sun's first rays illuminate the deity in the innermost sanctum through the main entrance.

Modhera Dance festival is set against the majestic backdrop of the magnificent Sun temple built in 11th century. Beautiful lighting at the temple highlights the intricate details of the sculptures and architectural splendour, creating an atmosphere of magic. Some of the best dance groups in the country participate in this attractive event. The main highlights of the event are Gujarati classical dances, folks and music performance.

Elephanta Festival, Maharashtra

Dates to be announced

- ❖ This week-long festival is one of the most prominent ones in Mumbai.
- ❖ The festival showcases the heritage of dance, art and sculpture in India.

This renowned festival is held on the Elephanta Island, adjacent to the Elephanta Caves, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The week-long festival encompasses classical dances, plays, skits and instrumental and vocal recitals. Seats are arranged under the open sky, making a perfect atmosphere for this cultural festival. The festivities start with a folk dance performance from the local fishermen (Koli community) who are considered to be the original residents of the city of Mumbai. Also witness India's leading artists enthral the audience on a marvellously decorated stage.

Surajkund Crafts Mela, Haryana

01st to 16th February, 2022

- ❖ This is the largest crafts fair in the world.
- ❖ Showcases regional and international crafts and traditions.

The Surajkund Mela celebrates the unique diversity of Indian traditions and culture in an ambience, created to represent the ethos of rural India. Surajkund International Crafts Mela showcases some of the most exquisite handlooms and handicrafts of India that are fading away due to cheap machine made imitations. It is one of the most popular and largest fairs in the world where the footfall is estimated to be in millions. The prime highlight of the Surajkund fair is that one Indian state gets a special honour of being the Theme State of the year. The concept of the Theme State was brought upon with a view to promote and focus on the art, craft, culture, and cuisine of one State per year.

Losar, Sikkim

02nd February, 2022

- ❖ Losar Festival celebrates the Tibetan New Year.
- ❖ It's an extravagant display of Tibetan traditions, customs and beliefs.

Losar Festival celebrates the Tibetan New Year which originated in the 15th century. It is a significant festival of the North East Indian state of Sikkim and is celebrated with great enthusiasm for 8 -15 days every year. Losar is a mix of ancient rituals, music, dance, and drama deeply rooted in Tibetan traditions. The highlight of the Losar festival in Sikkim is the Cham masked dance performance by the lamas in monasteries of Sikkim which lures travellers from across the globe. A day in the festival is also dedicated to the ritual of offering buckets of Tsampa (a mixture of roasted barley flour and butter) on home altars praying for a good harvest in the current New Year.

Kala Ghoda Art Festival, Maharashtra

05th to 13th February, 2022

- ❖ Held in Mumbai, it is one of the biggest free art and culture festival in the world.
- ❖ Funds raised from the festival go towards the restoration and upkeep of the area.

The Kala Ghoda Arts Festival is a community celebration of the arts within one of the most beautiful and historic precincts of Mumbai, The Kala Ghoda Art District. It is nine day long annual festival and is created to draw attention towards the development of the area, restoring buildings and porticos, building people-friendly street furniture and improving the amenities. Several heritage buildings and institutions in the area have benefited from this. With a mix of music, dance, theatre, literature, food, street stalls, cinema, workshops, visual arts, urban design and architecture and heritage walks, the festival continues to present a medley of arts for the city to savour.

Nagaur Cattle Festival, Rajasthan

- ❖ Enjoy camel and bullock races, cock fights and tug-of-war competition during the festival.

Nagaur Cattle Festival, also known as Ramdeoaji Cattle Fair, is celebrated every year and boasts of being the 2nd largest cattle festival in India attracting thousands of curious travellers. A variety of animals like cattle, bullocks, camels and horses are traded by owners who come from every corner of the state. The animals are finely decorated to lure the buyers. The fair is also popular for its Mirchi Bazaar (red chilly market), which is biggest in India and also trades wooden items, iron- crafts and camel leather accessories.

Baneshwar Fair, Rajasthan

12th to 14th February, 2022

- ❖ Baneshwar Fair is considered to be the Maha Kumbh Mela of the Bhil Tribe of India with hundreds of thousands of Bhils from Rajasthan, Gujarat and Madhya Pradesh attending the fair.
- ❖ Traditions and Rituals of the Bhil Tribe.

Baneshwar fair is a popular tribal fair held in Dungarpur district in Rajasthan which is attended by a large number of population of Bhils. The Bhil tribe, renowned for their archery skills, are characterized by the bows and arrows they carry. This five-day religious fair held at a small delta formed by the rivers Som and Mahi, pays homage to Shiva and Vishnu. 'Baneshwar', meaning the 'Master of the Delta' in the local language, is derived from the revered Shivlinga kept in the Mahadev Temple in Dungarpur. The fair sees vendors selling their wares like clothing, medicinal herbs, musical instruments, wickerwork and knives as well as the famous bows and arrows. If you are lucky, you can also witness folk songs and dances being performed at the fair.

Jaisalmer Desert Festival, Rajasthan

14th to 16th February, 2022

- ❖ Some interesting sights include puppet show, snake charmers and also lively folk music performances.
- ❖ The Gair and the fire dance are highlights of the festival.

Jaisalmer Desert Festival is a famous cultural and colourful event. The festival showcases the rich and vibrant culture of Rajasthan against the backdrop of the Sam dunes. The festival is host to quirky competitions like Best Moustache, Camel polo, turban tying, Mr. Desert pageant and many more. You will also get a chance to witness Kabelia dancers dancing to the folksy tunes or even fire dancers showing off their skills. This festival also gives you the opportunity to indulge in the authentic Rajasthani cuisine and purchase quirky souvenirs to take back home.

Andalur Kavu Temple Festival, Kerala

Mid February

- ❖ The main attraction is plethora of cultural dance performances in an exceptional way.
- ❖ Usually held between the months of November to April according to the festival calendar Kerala.

Theyyam is a fascinating religious ritual of Kerala; intense and dark, which incorporates dance, mime and music, to celebrate an ancient tribal culture, which attaches great importance to the worship of heroes and ancestral spirits. Kannur and Kasargod are the best places in North Kerala to go see a Theyyam. Of the two Kannur is the stronghold of Theyyam and is best recommended. 18th February, 2022

- ❖ A temple festival lasting seven days.
- ❖ Rare and lesser known folk art of Kerala, Elephant processions and traditional percussion ensembles

Seven days of cultural and spiritual revelry is what draws people to the great Pariyanampetta Pooram in Pallakad, North Kerala. The rare and the lesser known traditional ritual of Kerala Kalamezhuthu Pattu, where the images of the Goddesses are drawn on the floor using different natural colours is one of the highlights. At night, one gets to see the another rare and lesser known folk art form Tholpavakoothu (Shadow Puppetry). The event ends with a procession of around 21 elephants and visitors can also see rare folk arts such Kaalavela (bull effigy) and Kuthiravela (horse effigy) of Kerala.

Kuttanellur Pooram, Kerala

18th February, 2022

- ❖ Dedicated to Durga, the Goddess of War in Hinduism in Thrissur, Central Kerala
- ❖ Pageantry of caparisoned elephants, percussion ensemble, performances of art forms and musical renditions

This is one of the classical temple festivals of central Kerala. Kuttanellur Devi temple is an ancient temple in the outskirts of Thrissur. Though the festival rituals are quite elaborate, two processions (one in the afternoon and one early in the morning) are the central events of the festival. Both processions feature seven elephants and are accompanied by an elaborate percussion orchestra (melam). Of these the procession early in the morning is especially scenic and is a favourite among festival connoisseurs.

Attukal Pongala, Kerala

18th February, 2022

- ❖ Entered Guinness records for being the largest single gathering of women for a religious activity.
- ❖ It is observed strictly by the womenfolk.

Attukal Pongala is a one of its kind festival which has also entered the Guinness Book of World Records as the largest congregation of women in the world in a single place on a single day irrespective of caste, creed or religion. The festival has the entire city engulfed in a festive mood. The women folk cook Pongala, a ritualistic offering of a sweet dish consisting of rice porridge, sweet brown molasses, coconut gratings, nuts and raisins to appease the Goddess presiding the Attukal Bhagavathi Temple. The Pongala is cooked in earthen pots over a traditional firewood hearth made from scratch with the items brought from home. The Priests then come around and sprinkle the holy water used to worship the goddess in each of the pots which is then taken home by the women to distribute amongst their family, friends and relatives.

Khajuraho Dance Festival, Madhya Pradesh

20th to 26th February, 2022

- ❖ This event is to promote cultural heritage and traditional dances of India.
- ❖ This week-long dance festival takes place in the open spaces in front of the Khajuraho temples.

Every year, a week-long festival for Indian classical dances is hosted against the spectacular backdrop of the UNESCO World Heritage Site. The venue for this festival are the magnificently lit Chitragupta & Vishwanatha Temple, jewels in the crown of the temples of Khajuraho. The festival has become a popular tradition paying tribute to classical dance, music and art of India. This cultural festival highlights the richness of various Indian classical dance styles such as Kathak, Bharatanatyam, Odissi, Kuchipudi, Manipuri and Kathakali. There are performances from some of the best exponents in the field.

Goa Carnival, Goa

26th February to 1st March, 2022

- ❖ The Goa Carnival is held in February or March, just before Lent.
- ❖ The Carnival is a 4 day razzmatazz that is observed with great gusto and zeal.

Goa Carnival is based on the Christian tradition that was brought to Goa in 16th century by the Portuguese. This colourful festival represents the commencement of the 40 days of fasting of Lent. It is a 3-day non-stop festival of dance, song, music and lots more. The city glares with lights, colourful ribbons and glittering papers. The streets are alive with the multi-coloured procession with dances, bands and floats. The entertaining performances of the live bands is another attraction of the festival.

The background of the image is a repeating floral pattern in a light pink or lavender color. It features stylized flowers of various sizes, some with multiple petals, and elegant, swirling vines with small leaves. The pattern is dense and covers the entire area.

Parippally Gajamela, Kerala

First Week of March

- ❖ Gajamela means elephant procession.
- ❖ Over 50 elephants are taken out on a ritual procession on the tenth day of the festival.

A host of as many as 50 caparisoned elephants parade majestically as a tribute to the deity during the Parippally Gajamela which is a part of the annual festival at the Kodimoottil Sree Bhagavathy Temple dedicated to Goddess Bhadrakali. A host of cultural programmes are staged as part of this event on the temple premises for the entertainment of the devotees. The elephants are paraded on the concluding day of the ten-day festival. A unique practice observed during these festivities is the ritual offering of elephants to deities in a belief that this offering of elephants satisfies the deity and grants all the wishes of the devotees.

Jaipur Literature Festival, Rajasthan

05th March to 14th March, 2022

- ❖ Started in 2006, it is one of the biggest free events of its kind in India.
- ❖ It has attracted over a million book lovers over the years.

With its humble beginnings in 2006, the Jaipur literature festival has become the largest festival of its kind in the Asia Pacific region. Diggi Palace was the main venue of the event. However, with the kind of attention it has gathered over the years, the festival now has multiple venues, including the iconic Hawa Mahal and Amber fort. An event that brings together some of the greatest minds across the globe, this festival is host to readings, debates, discussions, live music sessions and interactive workshops. Some of the known speakers to have attended the lit-fest include Pulitzer Prize winners Andrew Sean Greer and Colson Whitehead, Markus Zusak - author of 'The Book Thief' and Vikram Chandra of the 'Sacred Games' fame, to name a few. This year the festival is taking place at Clarks Amer, Jaipur.

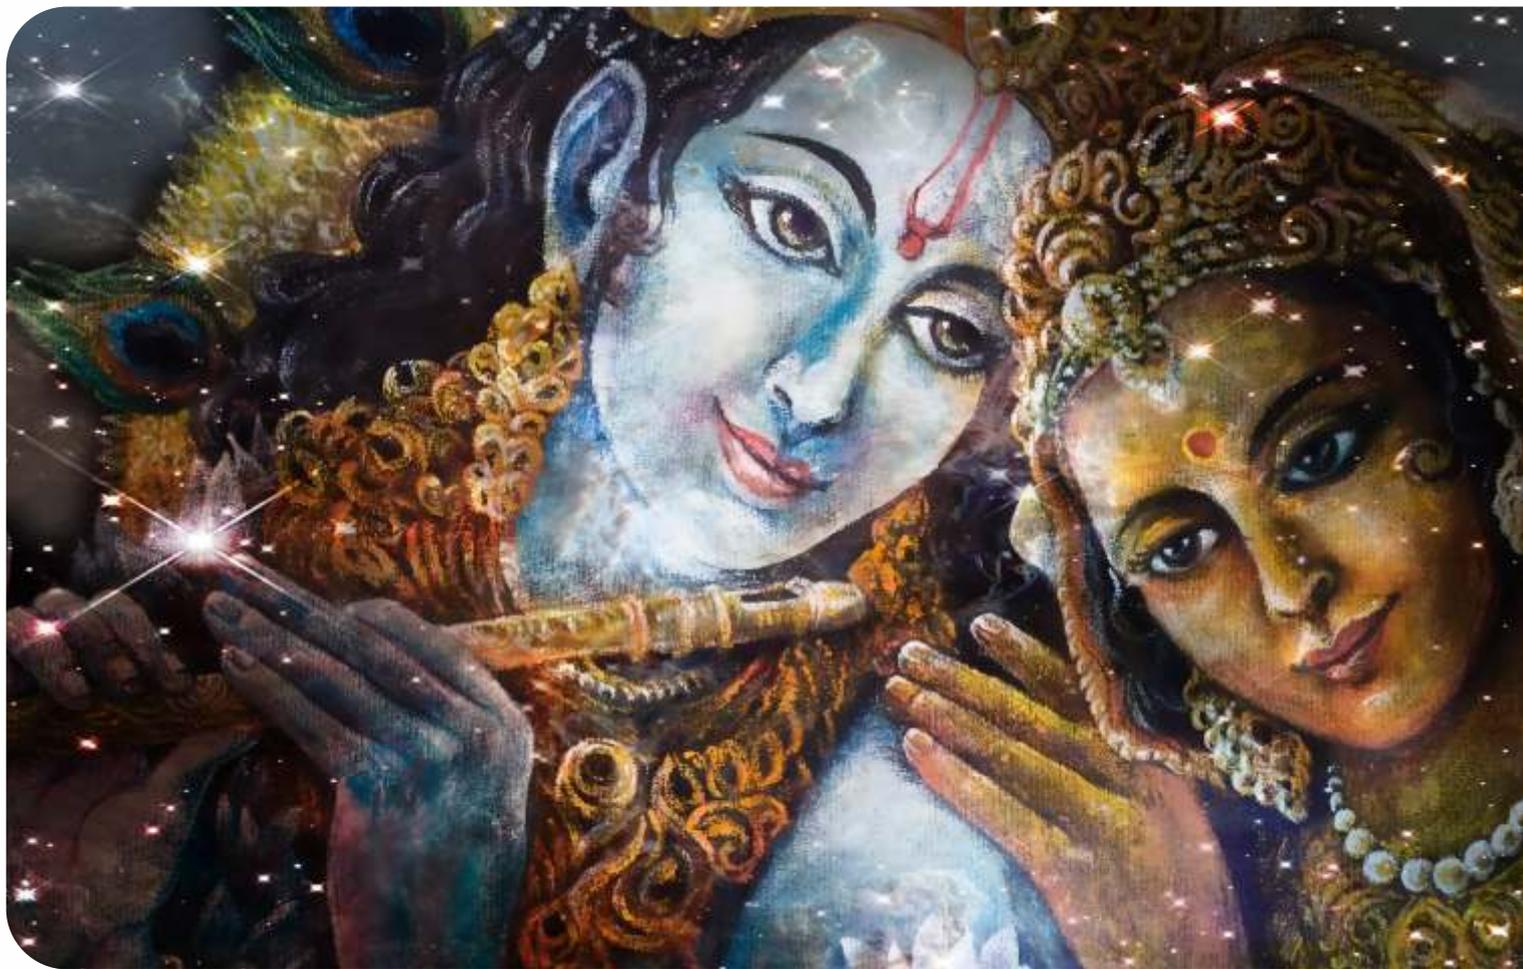

International Yoga Festival, Uttarakhand

08th to 14th March, 2022

- ❖ A week-long Yoga Festival in Rishikesh, considered to be the Yoga capital of the world.
- ❖ Masters of different schools and styles of Yoga impart their knowledge to the participants of the festival.

Yoga focuses on harmony between body and mind and derives its philosophy from Indian metaphysical beliefs. The word yoga is derived from the Sanskrit language and means union. The ultimate aim of this philosophy is to strike a balance between mind and body and attain self-enlightenment. Rishikesh, considered the Yoga Capital of the world, organizes a week-long Yoga Festival every year. It is held at Paramartha Niketan, located on the bank of the River Ganga. This seven day program witnesses various sessions from global Yoga experts and also hosts a variety of programs for the awareness of a healthy body, mind and soul.

Brij Festival, Rajasthan

13th to 14th March, 2022

- ❖ Lord Krishna is worshipped during this festival.
- ❖ This festival is held in a grand, elaborate and colourful manner.

Brij Festival is dedicated to Lord Krishna who is believed to have spent a considerable time of his childhood in an area called Brij, near Bharatpur. The villagers splash colours on each other and paint their house in different and bright colours. The major highlight of the festival is the dance called Raslila which it is said was performed by Krishna and Radha in moments of deep intimacy and affection. Many professional artists can also be seen playing folk music and performing Rajasthani dance forms.

Arattupuzha Pooram, Kerala

17th March, 2022

Considered to be the mother of all Pooram festivals in Kerala, the annual Arattupuzha Pooram is the annual festival at Arattupuzha Temple in Thrissur. A well-attended event, this vibrant Pooram is considered to be the oldest of all and a rich visual spectacle. The ornately decked up venues host many caparisoned elephants and the festival witnesses the rendition of Panchavadyam, the traditional Kerala percussion ensemble. The venue for the festivities, the Sree Sastha Temple dedicated to Lord Ayyappa is believed to be more than 3000 years old. A ceremony that sets this festival apart from the rest is the Devamela - a procession of as many as 23 deities from different temples are brought here and worshipped which makes for an arresting visual.

Holi (Festivals of Colours), North India

18th March, 2022

- ❖ India's Festival of Colours.
- ❖ The most common phrase used on this day: bura na mano, Holi hai - don't be offended, it's Holi!

Holi is the most fun-filled and boisterous of Hindu festival. It's an occasion that brings in unadulterated joy and mirth, fun and play, music and dance and of course, lots of bright colours. It is a two-day festival; the first day is known as Holika Dahan or Chhoti Holi and the second as Rangwali Holi or Dhulandi. The festival date, which is determined by the Hindu calendar, varies from year to year on the Gregorian calendar, usually comes in March. The festival signifies the victory of good over evil, the arrival of spring, end of winter and for many, a festive day to meet family and friends.

Holla Mohalla, Punjab

18th to 20th March, 2022

- ❖ Mock battles, sword-fighting, archery and horse-riding displays by the Nihang Sikhs.
- ❖ Interaction with Nihang Sikhs.

Holla Mohalla is celebrated in Anandpur Sahib in the month of March, the day after Holi - the festival of colours. Holla Mohalla was started by the tenth Sikh Guru, Shri Guru Gobind Singh, in 1701 as a gathering of Sikhs for military exercises and mock battles who were at that time battling the Mughal Empire. Mock battles, sword-fighting, archery and horse-riding displays are the highlights of the festival. Holla Mohalla is celebrated for three-days with organized processions (Nagar Kirtan) in the form of an army column accompanied by war drums and standard-bearers moving from one location to another or gurdwara to gurdwara.

Taj Mahotsav, Uttar Pradesh

20th - 29th March, 2022

- ❖ Reveals the rich cultural heritage of the country.
- ❖ India's authentic dance forms, handicrafts and cuisines are found in one grand platform.

Taj Mahotsav is an annual 10-day event held at Shilpgram in Agra. This festival invokes the memories of the old Mughal era and Nawabi style prevalent in Uttar Pradesh in the 18th and 19th centuries. The festival starts with a procession entailing decorated elephants and camels like the victory processions of Mughal emperors and warlords. Drum beaters, trumpet players, folk dancers, skilled craftsmen and artisans also join the procession. Artists from all over India come here to display their art and craftsmanship.

Jagannath Rath Yatra, Odisha

01st July, 2022

- ❖ The chariots used during Rath Yatra are built every year. Carpenters began the construction of chariots on the Akshaya Tritiya day (sometime in April).
- ❖ The chariots are painted with bright colours and the tops are covered with red, black, yellow, or green canopies.
- ❖ Lord Jagannath uses red and yellow, Lord Balabhadra uses red and green, while Goddess Subhadra uses red and black. All the chariots have separate features to distinguish from each other.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular Hindu festival organized each year at the famous Jagannath Temple in Puri, Odisha. Rath Yatra commemorates Lord Jagannath's annual visit to Gundicha Mata temple. It is said that to honour the devotion of Queen Gundicha, the wife of the legendary King Indradyumna who built the Puri Jagannath Temple. Lord Jagannath, Lord Balabhadra and Goddess Subhadra leave their regular abode in the main temple and spend a few days in this temple built by Gundicha in their honour. After resting eight days in Gundicha temple they all return to their main abode - the Jagannath Temple. Idols of all the three are carried in procession in huge, beautifully decorated wooden chariots pulled by a great number of enthusiastic devotees falling over each other to get a chance to serve the deities. All of this makes for a unique sight and forms the core of the Rath Yatra or Chariot festival, one of the most sacred Indian occasions.

Ramnagar Ramlila, Uttar Pradesh

09th September to 05th October, 2022

- ❖ Ramlila at Ramnagar has been performed for almost 200 years, making it the world's oldest Ramlila performance.
- ❖ This 31 day long festival is held in the outskirts of Varanasi when the entire town is turned into a stage for the Ramlila artists.

Ramlila, literally means “Rama’s play”, is a fascinating screenplay of Ramayana in a series of scenes that include songs, narrations, recitals and dialogues. It is performed across northern India during the festival of Dussehra, held each year according to the ritual calendar in autumn. It is believed to have been born in the country between 1200 and 1500 A.D. when Akbar, the Mughal Emperor, used to be the spectator of a live Ramlila show during his rule. The present day staging of the Ramayana is based on the Ramacharitmanas, the sacred text devoted to the glory of Rama, the hero of the Ramayana, which was composed by Tulsidas in the sixteenth century. The Ramlila in Ramnagar is very popular in India and held for a time span of 31 days as opposed to the normal duration of 10 days.

Tarnetar Mela, Gujarat

10th to 12th September, 2022

- ❖ The festival is assumed to have initiated about 200 to 250 years ago.
- ❖ The fair is based around young tribal men and women who are seeking suitable marriage partners.

This 3-day fair is held on the grounds of the temple of Triniteshwar Mahadev, which means "the three-eyed God." Legend says that this fair has been held here since ancient times. Its origin is linked with the story of Draupadi's swayamvar, where the great archer Arjun performed the difficult task of piercing the eye of a rotating fish with an arrow, by only looking at its reflection in the water. The fair is a celebration of ethnic Gujarat's folk-dance, music, costumes and the arts, centred around young tribal men and women seeking marriage partners.

Pulikali Tiger Dance, Kerala

11th September, 2022

- ❖ Get a ringside view of the preparations of this spectacular event of colour, sound and movement right behind your hotel. Great photo opportunities.
- ❖ Interact with the “Tigers” and get to know first-hand the painstaking efforts of the performers before they take to the streets.
- ❖ If you are adventurous, the painters there are happy to paint a Tiger face on your belly and you can learn a few Pulikali moves too from the performers.
- ❖ Cheer for the Tigers as they roam the streets of Thrissur, dancing to rustic drumbeats.

Potbellied men dance with tiger faces painted on their rotund bellies to rustic drumbeats in this pantomime-cum-parade dance at on the streets of Thrissur. It is held on the 4th day of Onam every year. The Pulikali Tiger Dance is said to be a nearly 200 year old tradition. But no one knows how it all began at Thrissur. While some locals say that Pulikali was brought to Kerala by Muslims who performed the dance during their mourning festival of Muharram; others say the local Maharaja wanted a new dance, something macho, as a part of the Onam celebrations with steps that mime hunting moves and tactics.

Navratri, Gujarat

Durga Puja, West Bengal

02nd to 05th October, 2022

- ❖ Durga Puja is a part of a fortnight long celebration called Devi Paksha where people worship Shakti; the divine feminine of Hinduism.
- ❖ It is most significant for the Bengali community of West Bengal in particular, who celebrate Durga puja with great enthusiasm.

Durga Puja is a part of a fortnight long celebration called Devi Paksha where people worship Shakti; the divine feminine of Hinduism. It is most significant for the Bengali community of West Bengal in particular, who celebrate Durga puja with great enthusiasm. The multi-day festival is particularly fascinating in Kolkata where it is all about exquisite idols of Goddess Durga, extravagant thematic pandals (stages), rituals, dances, good food, huge crowds and chants of “Bolo Ma Durga ki Joi” (Hail Mother Durga). It is that time of the year when Bengalis plan each day meticulously – what to dress, where to go, whom to meet, what to eat, what to cook et al. Nothing else matters. The women folk bring out all the traditional jewellery and the best traditional saris which otherwise lie wasted in some corner of the wardrobe during other times of the year.

Dussehra In Kullu, Himachal Pradesh

05th to 14th October, 2022

- ❖ Kullu Dussehra begins when Dussehra festivities ends elsewhere in India.
- ❖ The flavour of the festivities, rituals and traditions of Kullu Dussehra makes it totally different from the Dussehra celebrations elsewhere in the country.

The internationally famed Kullu Dussehra which is held in Kullu Valley dates back to the 17th century. The concept of local deities, or devtas, is ancient and is prevalent across the Himalayan region of India. The belief that these local deities rule over the land as owners, and take care of the people and their possessions, has led to a unique cultural system in the region. Kullu Dussehra is week-long congregation of many such local deities from the various villages of Kullu Valley. They arrive in colourful processions to pay respect to Raghunathji who is considered to be the head of all the local deities of Kullu Valley.

Kallyot Bahgavathy Temple Theyyam

Date be announced

- ❖ The main attraction is plethora of cultural dance performances in an exceptional way.
- ❖ Usually held between the months from November to April according to the festival calendar Kerala.

Theyyam is a fascinating religious ritual of Kerala; intense and dark, which incorporates dance, mime and music, to celebrate an ancient tribal culture, which attaches great importance to the worship of heroes and ancestral spirits. Kannur and Kasargod are the best places in North Kerala to go see a Theyyam. Of the two Kannur is the stronghold of Theyyam and is best recommended. A Theyyam can happen in a temple, in a forest shrine, in a private shrine or a private home. In a Theyyam, an oracle offers his body to the spirits -sometimes that of an ancestor, maybe a great forest hero of the yore or a serpent goddess - as a medium to communicate with the villagers, understand their problems, offer solutions and bless them. People wanting counsel approach the Oracle in a trance-eyes bulging and rolling back- with their questions. Answers are given in whispers and sometimes in extensive outbursts. It is believed by the locals that the Oracle of a Theyyam possessed by spirits can cure an illness, ensure a good harvest or drive away evil spirits.
